

I became aware of Sinclair
Broadcasting Group
when they first refused air the April 30th broadcast
of ABC's "Nightline"
on their affiliate stations. It was stated then by the company that they believed ABC was
"disguising
political statements
as news content."

Now, Sinclair
has decided to preempt regular television
programming on all of its stations nationwide to air an uninterrupted
"documentary" attack
ad against presidential candidate John Kerry's service in Vietnam. They do so under the guise of a news broadcast.

It is this blatant hypocrisy that is a danger to the public airwaves. The Sinclair
is abusing their access to the airwaves and acting in their own best interest, not the public's.

This is a clear violation of broadcast regulations and should be fully investigated.
Sinclair
should be held accountable for their actions and their license renewals should be delayed until such investigations can be completed.
